

Priced From $399,990

 1,654-2,513

 3-4

 2

 2 Car

When you're ready to escape from traffic, attitudes and inconveniences, come to Havenbrooke, set among Kernersville's rolling hills and lush forests. Perched between Winston-Salem and Greensboro, this bustling town full of history and nature is also one of the most convenient places you could choose to call home. Finally, you won't have to choose between big-city amenities — like world-class shopping, dining, sporting events and entertainment — and small-town charm. In fact, the only choice you'll have to make is whether you want a convenient, one-story ranch or two floors of stylish comfort. Either way, you'll be taking advantage of an exceptional opportunity to own a new home near some of North Carolina's oldest treasures. Pick your perfect Havenbrooke home from our Favorite Things Collection. Each carefree plan offers open spaces, private nooks, plenty of room for entertaining, eclectic colors, and special touches destined to become some of your favorite things.

Embrace the effortless life at Havenbrooke. Joyfully Built. Meaningfully Different.

All square footage is approximate. Renderings are artist's conceptions and may vary slightly from the actual home. Homes may be built in reverse of plans shown, depending on site conditions. Minor architectural changes may be made occasionally at the option of the builder. Please contact your Sales Consultant for details.