Welcome to the Bright Copper Kettles plan—where life slows down, and presence takes center stage. In a world that's constantly moving, this home featuring the popular Snoop & Martha curated interior design package invites you to hit pause. Embrace the ease of one-floor living with thoughtfully designed spaces that offer both privacy and flexibility. Whether it's a cozy reading nook, a creative studio, or a home office, the flex space adapts to your needs. This is your invitation to create a home that's perfectly tuned to your rhythm, where every moment feels just a bit more deliberate.

All square footage is approximate. Renderings are artist's conceptions and may vary slightly from the actual home. Homes may be built in reverse of plans shown, depending on site conditions. Minor architectural changes may be made occasionally at the option of the builder. Please contact your Sales Consultant for details.
